1. German airmen, specialists in pilot training, have been arriving in Turkestan, bringing their families with them, as if for a prolonged stay. They come on an official invitation from Moscow. They have been offered good pay and comfortable quarters for their families.
2. The men are old-time Luftwaffe experts. It is understood they are to direct the training of 20,000 pilots. It is anticipated that they will be dispersed all along the coast of the Caspian sea, but this information has not yet been fully confirmed.
